

Bad Weather Policy

In case of bad weather or other problems which disrupt normal activity in the community, if the Austin Independent School District closes, our office will also close.

During the summer, when AISD is not in session, Dr. Harden will decide on office closings based on the situation. We will attempt to post any such information on this website, as well as on our office answering system.